

Theatre Royal, Drury-Lane.

MONDAY, APRIL 7, 1794.

The performance of Plays, in this Theatre, is unavoidably postponed on account of the extent of the Preparations for compleating the SCENERY and MACHINERY, in a Style fuitable to the Theatre.

But at the Request of Numbers of Ladies and Gentlemen, who have hitherto been disappointed of Places, there will be, THIS WEEK,

FOUR PERFORMANCES

OF

Grand Selections of Music, and

ORATORIOS,

Viz. On WEDNESDAY,

A GRAND SELECTION

OF SACRED MUSIC.

On THURSDAY,

(BY PARTICULAR DESIRE)

REDEMPTION

A SACRED ORATORIO,

Selected from the Great and Favourite Works of

H A N D E L.

The particulars of the above PERFORMANCES, and of those for
FRIDAY, and SATURDAY.

Will be duly Advertised.

After Saturday the Theatre will close till Compleat for DRAMATIC REPRESENTATIONS.

Places to be had of Mr. Fosbrook, at the Office in Little Ruffel-Street.